

ROSENFELD PROGRAM

in public affairs, international relations, and human rights

STUDENTS

Are you interested in Foreign Policy?

Are you interested in Russia?

You are invited to have lunch with

John Beyrle

retired U.S. Ambassador to Russia

Eric Green '85

Director of Russian Affairs, U.S. Department of State

FREE AND OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS

This is in collaboration with the special event, "Russia and the West: Conflict, Diplomacy and the Future" by John Beyrle and Eric Green '85, scheduled for Wednesday, February 24 at 4 pm in the gallery.

Sponsored by the John Chrystal Fund for Distinguished Foreign Visitors

12:00 pm
Wednesday
February 24
JRC 209

GRINNELL COLLEGE

Russia and the West: Conflict, Diplomacy, and the Future

Sergei Muzimshin, Krasnokamenka, 2006. Color photograph, Private Collection.

Ambassador John Beyrle (retired) and Eric Green '85, Director of Russian Affairs, U.S. Department of State, will engage in a dialogue about Russia's evolving and complicated relationship with the West. Moderated by Ed Cohn, department of history.

Co-sponsored by the John Crystal Fund for Distinguished Visitors; the Rosenfield Program in Public Affairs, International Relations, and Human Rights; Russian, Eastern and Central European Studies and Faulconer Gallery.

Wednesday, February 24
Faulconer Gallery @ 4 p.m.

