AFRICA: WHY ECONOMISTS GET IT WRONG

PRESENTED BY DR. MORTEN JERVEN

Morten Jerven is an economic historian and Associate Professor in Global Change and International Relations at Noragric. He has a PhD from the London School of Economics and has published widely on African economic development, particularly on patterns of economic growth and on economic development statistics. His books are based on research in Ghana, Nigeria, Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania, Malawi, Zambia and Botswana. His latest book is Africa: Why Economists Get it Wrong and focuses on how economic statistics have misled the mainstream view of the African continent's economic progress.
