About the Musical Director:

Barry Jones entered the gospel music industry at the age of ten under his mother's guidance. Through many years of practice and perseverance Barry recognized God's calling upon his life. He is currently the Director of Music at Corinthian Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa, under the auspices of Rev. Lee Zachary Maxey and is also the founder and director for a community Gospel choir called "Restoration & Prayze" out of Des Moines Iowa. This community group was created in April 2004. In his role as Minister of Music at Corinthian Baptist Church, Barry oversees the musical organization of the church. In addition to his responsibilities at Corinthian, Barry is known in the community for his musical style and ability. He has conducted several workshops, served as musician for well-known and established community events, and assisted other churches with their music ministry program. Prior to his position at Corinthian, Barry was the Minister of Music at Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa for six years. From 2002 through 2004, Barry also served as the guest Musical Director for the Young and Gifted Gospel Choir at Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa.
