

ROSENFELD PROGRAM

in public affairs, international relations, and human rights

WAR on DRUGS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 2013

7:30 P.M., JOE ROSENFELD '25 CENTER (JRC), ROOM 101

FILM SHOWING

Gideon's Army

Twelve million people are arrested in the United States each year, and millions of those cases will proceed through the criminal justice system. It is not uncommon for lawyers to handle hundreds of cases at a time. What does this mean for our justice system?

Gideon's Army seeks to answer that question by following three young public defenders as they counsel hundreds of defendants through the strained criminal justice system in the Deep South.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2013

NOON, JRC, ROOM 101

SCHOLAR'S CONVOCATION

Dawn Porter

Criminal Justice System
Reformer, Attorney, and Gideon's Army, Filmmaker

GRINNELL COLLEGE

